a large number of Service personnel to CIA and therefore impede the mission of the Department of Defense.

25X1 Mr. [] noted that in connection with projects submitted to the PRC, in most instances it was apparent that these projects were not receiving proper coordination, particularly from the support elements of CIA. Mr. [] stated that he realized that this was a fact and that he was taking steps to properly coordinate projects support-wise before they are presented to the PRC. 25X1

25X1 Mr. [] also stated that the Army was having trouble in finding assignments for officers and enlisted men who have been returned from Korea, and that we were making attempts to recruit some of these people for CIA.

25X1 Colonel Hansen briefed those present on Senator O'Connor's investigation of the Insurance Syndicate which appeared in today's log. The individual conducting this investigation for Senator O'Connor is coming in today to be briefed by Colonel Hansen and Mr. [].
